Fantasy Life Matthew Berry, 2014-07-01 Includes new chapters with small, easy-to-understand words. Bestselling words! Fantasy football, fantasy baseball, fantasy basketball, even fantasy sumo wrestling: the world of fantasy sports is huge, and still growing. Today, more than 35 million people in the United States and Canada spend hours upon hours each week on their fantasy sports teams. And as the Senior Fantasy Sports Analyst for ESPN, Matthew Berry is on the front lines of what has grown from a niche subculture into a national pastime. In his New York Times-bestselling Fantasy Life, Berry celebrates every aspect of the fantasy sports world. Brilliant trash talk. Unbelievable trophies. Insane draft day locations. Shake-your-head-in-disbelief punishments. Ingenious attempts at cheating. And surprisingly uplifting stories that remind us why we play these games in the first place. Written with the same award-winning style that has made Berry one of the most popular columnists on ESPN.com, Fantasy Life is a book for both hard-core fantasy players and people who have never played before. Between tales of love and hate, birth and death, tattoos and furry animal costumes, the White House Situation Room and a 126-pound golden pelican, Matthew chronicles his journey from a fourteen-year-old fantasy player to the face of fantasy sports for the largest sports media company in the world. Fantasy will save your life. Fantasy will set you free. And fantasy life is most definitely better than real life. You'll see.

Until September Brenda K. Jernigan, 2003 Determined to hide her terminal illness, Claire Holladay heads for Denver, escorted by handsome former outlaw Billy West. There, Claire survives kidnapping by gunslingers thanks to Billy, but she soon faces something more dangerous: love. Original.

My Generation. British Art in the 1960s, 2015 This occasion presented an opportunity to look back at the art created by younger artists during those heady, 'swinging' times when the University was established, and to build links between the University and the blossoming art sector across Kent. These three exhibitions each have their own distinctive take on this rich and inventive period, and together provide a wide-ranging exploration of some notable developments and achievements in painting, sculpture, printmaking and photography of the period. The shows themselves are spread over a seven-month period, and will be accompanied by a season of talks and events. 00Exhibition: Studio 3 Gallery, University of Kent, Canterbury Campus, UK / Mascalls Gallery, Paddock Wood, UK / The Beaney House of Art and Knowledge, Canterbury, UK (19.01-23.08.2015).

Deep Experiencing Olga V. Lehmann, Jaan Valsiner, 2018-01-18 This Brief brings together empirical accounts that contribute to the investigation of the cultural phenomena of deep personal experiences. It examines everyday life experiences and its influence on the development of successful social interactions. Issues of silence, the subjective feelings of opportunities, and culturally canalized feelings of "being here" or "being influenced by others are all deep personal experiences that are rooted within the framework of cultural psychology. By bringing together the discourses of Dialogical Self Theory (DST) and Cultural Psychology of Semiotic Mediation for a new generation of researchers who address issues of this phenomenon, chapters aim to link phenomena-saturated empirical accounts with general theoretical innovations. In addition, the Brief studies socially relevant issues from the lenses of Cultural Psychology. Topics featured in this Brief include: Globalization and its effect on identity and personal experiences. The subjective nature of opportunities. Migrating identities across generations. Serious illness and its influence on communication. Deep Experiencing will be of interest to researchers, professors, and graduate students in the fields of psychology, cognitive psychology, medicine, anthropology, social work, and aesthetics.
