Nuclear Power and the Public Harry Foreman,1970

The Need to Touch Brooke Johnson, (As,Natalya Parks,2014-07-31 *Warning: Mature content* You can only win someone's heart once you've captured it. Nineteen year old Ryder Harrison grew up near a small town in Montana, working on the family's ranch and in love with his best friend, Landon Pennington. That was until his Grandfather decided he needed to go to college in California. Ryder promised his Mom before she died that he would finish his education. Staying true to his word, Ryder packs his clothes, and heads to California, confident that it would all be one big disaster. The only thing he hadn't planned on was meeting Bentley Carter. Twenty year old Bentley Carter has enough emotional issues to write his own 'How to Cope' manual. Surviving an abusive childhood, he made a personal promise to always stay true to himself, and never let emotions overrule his common sense. Content with his current life and friend with 'benefits', Ben is determined to not let his new roommate affect him. Uncertain about their places in the world, and with each other, Ryder and Ben struggle to understand the person who is not what they thought they wanted, yet who they are unable to live without. Living in a sometimes cruel and unforgiving world they are determined to embrace the reality of falling in love and the challenges that follow.
